“Pablo Cruise is well-known for their honest, real down to earth vocals, accompanied by fun yet elegant, infectious grooves,” said Dana Stoehr, CEO of the San Mateo County Event Center and Fair. “To hear Pablo Cruise digitally is one thing, but to experience the band live is an exhilarating event!”

Pablo Cruise’s first album cover was shot in San Francisco’s Golden Gate Park. From 1975 to 1985 the band toured the United States, Canada and Japan extensively, welcoming fans to “Climb Aboard the Good Ship Pablo Cruise.” Reaching the top 10 with mega hits like “Whatcha Gonna Do When She Says Goodbye?” and “Love Will Find a Way” and several other top 20’s, the band went on to sell several million albums and singles collectively and established themselves as well respected writers and performers within the industry. Pablo Cruise was the first rock band to grace the stage at the Grand Ole Opry. In 1985, after completing several national tours and releasing seven studio albums in all, the band decided to take a 20-year hiatus. In 2005, Pablo Cruise reunited and perform all over the U.S and Canada. They have since released two live CD’s and a DVD through Sony. Pablo Cruise brings energy and excitement to the stage every performance.

Other concerts announced for the San Mateo County Fair's 2018 Concert Series are: Sugar Ray (June 13), Average White Band (June 15) and John Michael Montgomery (June 16).
