ABOUT OUR PASTOR...
REVEREND ALBERT C. MACKLIN, IV

PASTOR ALBERT MACKLIN, IV Pastor Albert C. Macklin IV, a native of California is the third son born to Reverend and Mrs. A.C. Macklin III. Pastor Macklin completed his general education in the Mountain View Public School system. In 2004, he attained a Bachelor's Degree in Theology from San Jose Christian College. Albert C. Macklin IV was appointed Senior Pastor of New Sweet Home The Temple of Deliverance Church of God in Christ in 2004, following the demise of his father.

Pastor Macklin has served in various capacities within the church. He has a great passion for ministry, preaching/teaching, praise & worship and music, which all are at the top of his list. He is a prolific speaker, an anointed psalmist, and a skilled songwriter and musician. Pastor Macklin is an interactive leader in the City of East Palo Alto, California. He serves on several community boards and management teams, offering his expertise from a social, psychological and economic perspective, in an effort to enhance the community at large.

Celebrating the release of his latest Gospel CD, "I Believe God," recorded during a live concert, Pastor Albert continues to walk in his calling to enhance the lives of others. He endeavors to be a "Servant," called by God, loyal, dependable and committed to a life of purity, integrity and excellence. He maintains his focus through the power of God to impact the lives of others throughout the world, sharing his testimony of strength and endurance despite, any opposition. His voice is heard in churches, convention centers and campuses alike, as he shares his message of perseverance and faith in God.

Pastor Albert Macklin is the husband of Lady Evelyn Macklin, the father of four children: Alec, Alissa, and twin boys: Addicus and Ayden. He has dedicated himself to a life of prayer and holiness and lives by the following principle:

"My way is made, my need is met,
and the door is opened unto me...
I Believe God!"
