

Dorina Moraida, first-generation Mexican-American and one of six children. Dorina was born and raised in San Jose, Ca. Dorina is the CoFounder and Program Director for Hijas del Campo. Hijas del Campo is a 501c3 non-profit organization based in far East Contra Costa County serving Farmworkers and their families.

Dorina's later father migrated from Sonora Mexico to California in the in the 70's where he worked as a farmworker. Serving this community, our farmworkers, and their families is another way for Dorina to honor her Dad and his sacrifices. Dorina currently resides in Contra Costa County with her husband and 3 beautiful daughters.